

Razzamatazz is a unique and creative school holiday comedy variety show, suitable for all ages and fun for the whole family. Audiences will be amazed by the weird and wonderful gizmos and gadgets from one of the most original and inventive minds in the world of visual and prop comedy, Marty Putz, and will be left in stitches at the hilarious shenanigans of award-winning physical theatre comedian, Justin McGinley, and magician, Jonas Jost.

IDFA hosts Razzamatazz in Queanbeyan annually to provide an opportunity for children of all abilities and backgrounds to experience world-class entertainment in an inclusive, accessible & safe environment where they feel welcomed and free to be themselves without restriction or judgement.

IDFA works in partnership with local schools, support organisations and community groups to distribute complimentary Razzamatazz show tickets to local vulnerable children, families and community members, particularly those who have faced any hardship in recent times; including but not limited to children and adolescents with a disability, Autism Spectrum Disorder, severe and chronic illness, in foster-care, refugees, or affected by the recent fires.

"Our students had an absolutely fantastic time and thoroughly enjoyed the show. Students were mesmerised by the clowning, juggling, magic and acrobatics displayed on stage and delighted in the humour through the numerous comedy routines. This is a wonderful annual event which allows our students to exercise the many practical skills that they learn whilst at school, out in the community. We thank you for providing our students with a memorable opportunity."

- Joanna Kriziotis, Principal, West Coast Secondary Education Support Centre WA

"Every year I facilitate the delivery of tickets to 'Razzamatazz' to families of children with disabilities. It is a lovely opportunity for them to attend something that would normally well out of their reach financially and logistically. It is such a great show and the kids just love it. Thanks so much "

-Rebecca Paton, Parent Support Program Coordinator, Pinarc Disability Support VIC

"The 'Razzamatazz' show provided us with space to relax, and enjoy the show without worrying about the stressors of life. My 3-year-old spent part of the time rolling around on the floor, but for once we did not draw attention. We were amongst an audience that was accepting, and able to laugh together. I appreciated being able to take my daughters to the show, and to not have to leave my sons at home, either of which would not have been possible without your generosity and kindness. With much gratitude, THANK YOU!

-Liz Janetzki and family, QLD

"I took my 2 grandsons, daughter and her friend and children to this fantastic experience. today. This is my 4th time attending and I still thoroughly enjoy the whole show. My grandson has anger management issues and taking him out can be problematic. However, he has never "lost it" during this performance and, even though he gets upset at not being chosen to go on stage, he manages to stay calm. What a positive learning experience. Thank you again for providing this treat for our family."
